

Announcing: Visit to Bard High School Early College – Queens

What: Bard High School Early College is a free public high school where you complete not just a high school degree, but also a college associates' degree. Come with us to the Queens campus to have dinner, tour the campus, and take the admissions test. This is an amazing opportunity to explore an excellent high school.

There are some supplies you will need to bring with you. Please bring:

- Your final 7th grade report card.
- A pencil for the admissions test.
- If you have more than 10 absences/latenesses in 7th grade, please bring a letter explaining the circumstances. This can come from a parent, a doctor, or from yourself.

When: September 24, 5:30pm-8pm.

Where: Bard High School Early College – Queens, 30-20 Thompson Ave in Long Island City

Nearby subways: 7 (33rd Street), E (Queens Plaza), G (Long Island City-Court Square), N, Q (39th Ave–farther away)

If you cannot make it on the 24th, there are many other opportunities to take the admissions test. Go to <http://bhsec.bard.edu/admission/> for more information and to register.
